Part A: Identify artforms and take part in an art activity

The Kielder Brag is a transmedia fairytale - it tells a single story using lots of different artforms and digital technologies, including: writing, art, photography and film.

What other artforms do you know about?

Part B: Find out about an artist who uses the forest or the environment in their work and record your findings.

Here are some ideas to help you:

Visit Kielder and see the sculptures that have been made for the Art & Architecture programme - or visit the website here <http://www.visitkielder.com/art-architecture/kielder-art-architecture>

Use the internet to look at the work of these artists or choose an artist of your own:
